2.0 Food Safety

2.1 Food Premises Inspections

A total of 231 routine inspections of food businesses were undertaken during the reporting period. 100 follow-up inspections were required to ensure compliance with the Food Safety Standards. In total, 382 food premises inspections were completed during the reporting period.

As shown in Graph 2 the number of routine inspections and follow up inspections remained consistent with the previous year. There was a 19% decrease in the number of complaint inspections undertaken when compared to the previous year.

2.2 Food Safety Rating Scheme (FSRS)

The SA Health Food Safety Rating Scheme Checklist (FSRS) is used to assess business compliance with food safety standards at routine inspections. FSRS applies only to P1 and P2 food service businesses within EHA's Constituent Councils who sell food to consumers direct from the premises for 'immediate' consumption.

Non-compliances against the Standards can range from Minor, Major to Serious. This is dependent on the risk and seriousness of the breach. Observations are recorded when an item is not posing an imminent threat but may result in a future non-compliance. These are used as a tool to inform a business of their obligations before it poses a risk to public health.

All food businesses receive a 'performance score' assessed during their respective routine inspection. However, the 'food safety rating score' is represented by stars, with captured businesses able to obtain a maximum rating of five stars. Five stars represents excellent compliance with the Food Safety Standards, four stars very good and three stars good compliance.

Non-compliance with the Food Safety Standards

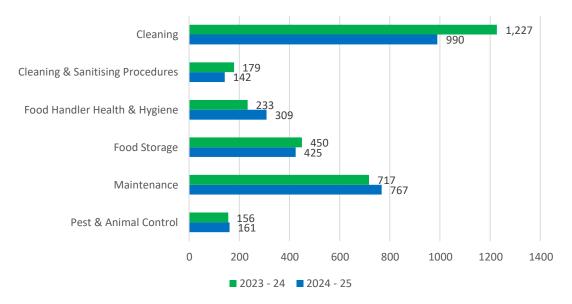

EHO's identified a total of 1,203 observations and non-compliances with the Food Safety Standards during the reporting period (Table 4). Most non-compliances recorded were minor in nature, with 72% of the non-compliances captured within this category.

Table 4: Type and Number of Non-Compliances Identified at Routine Inspections From 1
January to 31 March 2025

Type of non-compliance	Number of non-compliances
Observation	80
Minor	865
Major	165
Serious	93
Total	1,203

A poor standard of cleanliness, maintenance and unsafe storage of food accounted for the most common non-compliances identified during routine inspections for the reporting period (Graph 4). The number of non-compliances identified which relate to cleaning has decreased by 19%. There has however been a significant increase of 33% in the number of non-compliances relating to food handler health and hygiene.

Graph 4: A Two Year Comparison of Total Non-Compliances Per Category Identified at Routine Inspections in the Financial-Year-To-Date

Food Safety Rating Scheme Score

In accordance with the FSRS EHO's calculate a score during the routine inspection based on how well the food business meets the Food Safety Standards. A high inspection score indicates poor compliance, and a low score indicates good compliance with the Food Safety Standards.

Graph 5 demonstrates that there has been a marginal increase in the average FSRS Score from 8.4 to 8.7 compared to the previous year. This slight increase may be explained by the addition of Food Safety Supervisor requirements and the associated minor non-compliance if a business does not have an appointed Food Safety Supervisor.

Overall, a decrease is observed when comparing the current average FSRS Score to 2022-23 financial year.

FSRS – Star Rating

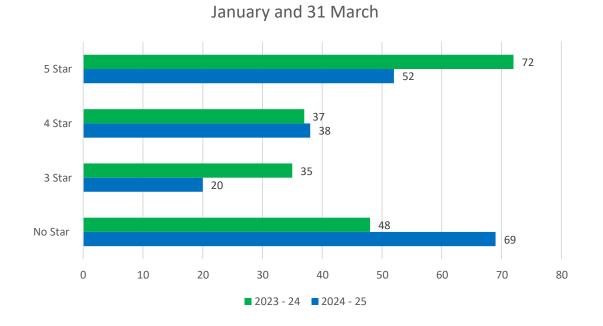

During the reporting period a total of 179 food businesses were assessed within the scheme, 13 less than the previous year. A total of 490 food businesses have been assessed under the scheme for the financial year to date, which is an increase from 440 for the same period in the previous financial year.

Tables 5 and 7 show a decrease in total number of food businesses receiving a star rating. The increase in number of businesses receiving no stars is likely due to the enforcement approach taken during the reporting period that meant business without a Food Safety Supervisor appointed are automatically awarded no stars.

Food businesses receiving a 5-star rating decreased from 38% to 29%, a 9% decrease compared to the same reporting period in the previous financial year. As reflected in Table 7, for the financial year to date there has been a 21% increase in businesses receiving no stars. Business receiving 5 stars has decreased by 17% when compared to the previous financial year to date.

2.5 Food Complaints

EHA received 34 complaints that were investigated under the Food Act 2001 during the reporting period. The complaints are shown by category in Graph 9 and by respective Constituent Council area in Table 12.

When compared to the same reporting period for the previous financial year there was a decrease in complaints relating to alleged food poisoning and unsafe or unsuitable food. There was an increase in complaints relating to poor personal hygiene/food handling practices, refuse storage, and unclean premises.

3.0 Public Health

3.1 Public Health Complaints

As shown in Graph 11, 96 public health complaints were received for the financial year to date, comparable to the same period in the previous year. A total of 130 inspections were undertaken to investigate these complaints, a 29% decrease compared to the previous year. The reduction in the number of inspections required can be attributed to the nature of complaints received and the approach taken to address and investigate each complaint.

Vector control and sanitation complaints account for the most common type of complaints over the past two years (Graph 12), representing 58% of the complaints received in the current reporting period.

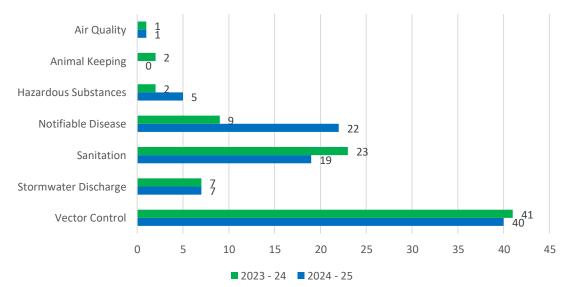

The total number of public and environmental health complaints received for the reporting period are further broken down by Council area in Table 16.

Table 17: Public and Environmental Health Complaints for the Financial Year to Date by Council Area

Due to the nature of sanitation complaints the investigation will often require more than one inspection.

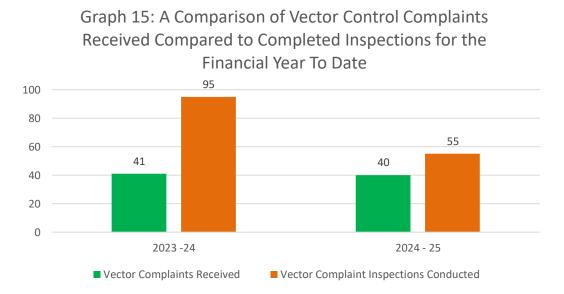

Sanitation complaints most commonly involve hoarding and squalor. These types of complaints are often complex and have additional underlying issues that require interaction from other agencies. Multiple inspections over an extended period are required to enable the complaint to be successfully addressed. For the financial year to date a total of 52 inspections have been conducted for sanitation complaints.

As shown in Graph 14, the number of sanitation complaints received is comparative over the past two years.

A high proportion of vector control complaints relate to vermin activity which often require time for compliance between inspections. Vector control complaints received have remained similar between the two financial years however the required inspections have decreased. This decrease can be attributed to the risk-based investigation strategy used by EHO's. In the first instance this enables the EHO's to communicate with and educate the requestor and alleged offender to resolve the matter. EHO's will conduct further inspection where required.

3.2 Cooling Towers & Warm Water Systems

During the reporting period five warm water systems inspections and four cooling tower inspections were conducted at three sites (Table 18). In the financial year to date six cooling tower inspections and eight warm water system inspections were conducted across seven sites (Table 19).

3.5 Wastewater

During the reporting period there were no applications received which required an assessment in accordance with the requirements of the SA Public Health (Wastewater) Regulations 2013.

Wastewater service reports are regularly received and monitored for compliance on an ongoing basis. A total of 24 service reports were received and assessed.

4.0 Health Care and Community Services - Supported Residential Facilities

For the reporting period 1 January and 31 March 2025 two dual licence and one pension only facility were licenced by Eastern Health Authority under the Supported Residential Facilities Act 1992.

Three audits were conducted at two facilities, and one follow up inspection was conducted.

One Manager's application was completed and approved, and one complaint was received and investigated.

5.0 Environmental Health Education / Promotion

Environmental Health education, training and promotion plays an important role in protecting the health of the local communities from the potential health effects of environmental hazards. EHA does this by informing the local community and businesses through various forms of communication by:

- raising awareness of environmental hazards in the community
- providing training, education, technical guidance and advice
- outlining legislative responsibilities and updates.

Food Safety Training

On 6 March 2025 one 'Food Safety Training' session was presented with 5 attendees. The session is aimed at educating food handlers on the fundamental principles of food safety with interactive activities to consolidate the participants learnings.

Fact Sheets and Newsletters

During the reporting period a fact sheet was published on the EHA website for refrigeration tips. These fact sheets are aimed at the public to promote awareness of food safety within their home.

8.2 IMMUNISATION

Public Clinics

Attendance and Vaccinations

During the reporting period 1 January – 31 March 2025, 672 clients visited one of EHA's public immunisation clinics, and a total of 1,683 vaccines were administered. This represents a notable increase of 168 clients (33.27%) and 430 vaccines (34.32%) compared to this reporting period the previous year. The accessibility of multiple clinics across all Constituent Council locations and within the City of Unley enables clients with the flexibility of choice of location, dates and times.

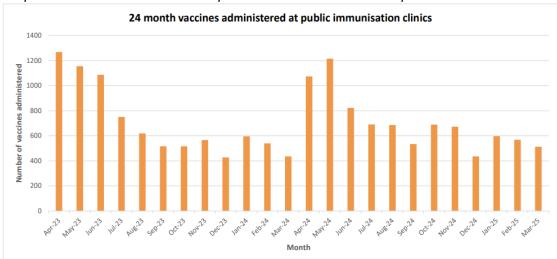

EHA's online booking system remains to be a preferred choice of booking among clients. There were 597 bookings completed online between January and March, accounting for 89% of booked clients.

Below details Client attendance and Vaccines administered for both the reporting periods of 2023 and 2024.

Graph 2: Vaccines administered at public clinics – 24-month comparison

Education

At EHA's public immunisation clinics, the registered nurses place strong emphasis on parent education, ensuring they are well-informed about the vaccines being administered to their babies and the critical role these vaccines play in preventing infectious diseases.

The Meningococcal (Men) ACWY is not part of the funded National Immunisation Program. The registered Immunisation nurses educate and inform parents of this vaccine preventable disease, with no obligation to vaccinate their baby. As shown in Graph 3, within the reporting period there was a high uptake with 71% of parents opting to further vaccinate their babies against Men ACWY. This was comparative to the uptake of 74% for the financial year to date (Graph 4). This strong uptake reflects both the trust in EHA's clinical staff and the value parents place on informed decision-making when it comes to protecting their children's health.

Non-Medicare 'Catch Up Program'

As part of EHA's broader Immunisation Service, an important component is the 'catch-up' program designed to support new arrivals from overseas who are not eligible for Medicare-funded vaccines. This program plays a vital role in promoting equitable access to immunisation and protecting the wider community from the spread of vaccine-preventable diseases.

The process involves a detailed review of overseas immunisation records, which can be complex and requires considerable administrative and clinical time from EHA's registered nurses. Despite the resource demands, this program remains an essential public health initiative, ensuring that no one is left behind when it comes to immunisation coverage.

As illustrated in Graph 5, a total of 38 client catch-up cases were received and reviewed during the current reporting period. A total of 118 catch-up immunisation clients have been recorded and assessed for the financial year to date.

2025 School Immunisation Program

During the reporting period, the 2025 School Immunisation Program (SIP) commenced with first visits at 12 schools successfully completed across EHA's Constituent Councils and the City of Unley.

During the reporting period total of 2,328 vaccines have been administered. This represents an increase of 471 vaccines (or 24.96%) compared to the same period in 2024 (refer to Table 2). The significant increase is primarily attributed to the earlier scheduling of initial school visits in 2025.

EHA Administrative Team have ensured that all Immunisation Consent Cards reviewed by the Registered Immunisation Nurses are data entered into a state based immunisation inventory system prior to the school visits and by 30 April 2025 as required by SA Health SIP Protocols.

Workplace Influenza Program

EHA's 2025 Workplace Influenza Program officially commenced on 1 April 2025, marking the beginning of this year's seasonal flu vaccination initiative aimed at promoting health and wellbeing across workplaces.

As of 31 March 2025, a total of 74 workplace flu bookings had been confirmed, demonstrating strong early interest and engagement from businesses committed to safeguarding their employees during the flu season.

The program is set to run for approximately 13 weeks with an anticipated conclusion around 30 June 2025. To further boost bookings, a targeted relaunch of the program was undertaken in February and ongoing promotion during the Flu Workplace program.

EHA remains committed to supporting workplaces in delivering accessible and efficient flu vaccination services, contributing to a healthier community overall.
